The enveloping green mountains . . . a lone mind . . . the whisper of a quill across the page . . . the fusing of body and spirit in Philadelphia . . . a saddled treck up a lone mountain to a crossroads town . . . a stone filled with hope, with love, with a few books . . . knees genuflected before a senseless foray . . . a confirmation in a silent woods . . . money from Anglican brethren . . . idea is concrete . . . caps and gowns and gentlemen . . . mark but these fifty years . . . Sewanee Review . . . the perishable nature of pigskin . . . medicine and law . . . 'These virtues cannot be absent from God' . . . once more, once more, the sound of war . . . a cross skeleton-white, a memorial . . . 'peace is wisdom's crest' . . . men and women . . . on the green, on the green, the prettiest women are on the green . . . change, the nature of things . . . tradition . . . a continuous form putting on new flesh.

AIR FORCE ROTC

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Is it possible to continue my education after commissioning and prior to going on active duty?

ANS. The Air Force does have provision for academic delays. Each case is considered on an individual basis; however, it is generally to the advantage of the individual and the Air Force to grant academic delays.

Do I have a choice of job assignments when I go on active duty?

ANS. The Air Force needs qualified officers in many career fields and will attempt, whenever possible, to assign you to a job consistent with your interest and educational background.

HOW DO I APPLY?
